

Connected Text

Readers' Theater

Fluency

The student will read with proper phrasing, intonation, and expression in connected text.

Assessments

▶ Readers' Theater script (Activity Master F.021.AM1a - F.021.AM1d)

Optional: Choose stories with dialogue-rich text and develop scripts within students' instructional-independent reading level range or locate appropriate scripts on the Internet.

Assessments

Students rehearse and read text using a Readers' Theater format.

1. Provide scripts for each student with his character highlighted in a specific color.
2. Taking turns, students read assigned parts of the script while providing assistance to one another with unknown words and/or phrasing, intonation, and expression.
3. Change characters and continue until every student has a turn reading each part.
4. Peer evaluation

Papa Bear: And the Papa Bear had a great big bed.

Narrator: One morning, the three bears made porridge for breakfast, but it was too hot to eat! So they decided to go for a walk in the woods until it cooled.

While the three bears were walking, a little girl named Goldilocks came to their house. First, she looked in at the window, and then she peeked through the keyhole.

Goldilocks turned the handle of the door. The door was not locked, so Goldilocks opened the door and went right in.

There was the porridge on the table. It smelled very, very good! She went straight to it.

First, she tasted the porridge of the Papa Bear.

Goldilocks: Um, this is too hot.

Narrator: Then she tasted the porridge of the Momma Bear.

Goldilocks: Um, this is too cold.

Narrator: Then she tasted the porridge of the Baby Bear.

Goldilocks: Oh, this is just right. I like it so much I think I'll eat it all up!

Narrator: Then Goldilocks went into the living room to see what else she could find. There were the three chairs.

First, she sat down in the chair of the Papa Bear.

Goldilocks: Um, this is too hard.
